When the U. S. shipping board's steam schooner Columbia and the ex-German bark Red Jacket get their cargo discharged, the Columbia will load a full cargo of canned pineapples, for Seattle, her master, Capt. C. E. Allen, said today.

The Red Jacket, which was formerly the German four masted bark Dalbek, came into port this morning, towed in by the Matson tug Intrepid, and was berthed at Pier 16, to lie there until the Columbia is through discharging coal at the Inter-island coal wharf, Pier 3. She will then move out and begin loading canned pineapples while the Red Jacket discharges her coal. The Columbia will tow the Red Jacket back to Puget Sound, although the bark has a full outfit of canvas and could sail if necessary.

Coal brought by the Columbia is 2050 tons and by the Red Jacket, which the steam schooner towed here from Nantah, B. C., is 14 days and 4 hours, 4025 tons. The Red Jacket, ex-Dalbek, has been a refugee vessel in Astoria for four years. She had been there some months awaiting a charter when the European war broke out, and stayed ever since, until taken over by the United States when war was declared on Germany in April. She is a magnificent big vessel of 2733 tons and 2544 net tons, formerly owned by Knorr & Burchard. She is much larger and longer than the John E. B. has very graceful lines. The vessel is painted gray and her new name, Red Jacket, is in large letters on her bows. Red Jacket is the first ex-German sailing vessel to arrive here flying the American flag.

The bark Flying Cloud, ex-Otto of San Francisco, another of the German sailing vessels now flying the American flag, is only two net tons smaller than the Red Jacket.

Another ex-German sailing ship, the Flying Cloud, is the Northern Light, Captain Allen of the Columbia. There is evidently plenty of coal here. The Red Jacket was when he arrived and his own schooner got her cargo in 14 hours. The Columbia towed the ex-German steamer Loomoon from her to Seattle in a half day. The Columbia expects to be here at least a week before sailing back to the Sound with the Red Jacket in tow.

They Had a Good Time on the Garden Isle

The students who made the trip to Kauai are still talking about the wonderful time they had on the Garden Isle. The people of Kauai surely made a great impression with the youngsters, and the Kauai promoters are beginning to realize that the returning contingent represents a walking advertisement for the Garden Isle. John Fernandez said that the boys would be treated well. He didn't say quite enough if one is to believe the stories of the All-Students. One of the boys who made a trip to Kauai had a position with one of the big firms in the city. He was selected by popular vote, and made the trip. When he came back he found that he had no job. "I surely hated to lose my job, but we had such excellent treatment at the hands of the Kauai people that I am glad that I made the trip," said the young star. The Star-Bulletin correspondents were on hand with their cameras and snapped a number of the scenes on the Kauai trip. (1)—J. E. Higgins, Billy Miles, Mayor John C. Lane and Abe Kaulukoa. (2)—Chun Chew, the St. Louis center fielder. (3)—Lai Sin of St. Louis and Sunn Hung of Mills. (4)—"Dad" Rice of Kauai, who proved to be a royal host. (5)—Billy Miles, E. Case, Harrison Rice, John Carey, Charles Rice and J. E. Higgins.

Leonard is Matched With Johnny Kilbane

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 28.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, and Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, were matched tonight to meet at American League park in Philadelphia on the evening of July 23.

Billy Gibson, manager of Leonard, made the announcement. He stated that Leonard would receive a guarantee of $10,000 with a privilege of accepting one-third of the receipts. The fighters will weigh in at 132 pounds at 5 o'clock.

Doings on the Hoop Circuit

Sheriff Rice and Charlie Rice are the real baseball fiends of the Garden Isle. Whenever there is a ball game at the Lihue Park in Kauai the sheriff and Charlie are always on the lookout. If Sheriff Rice of Honolulu would only follow the sheriff of Kauai, baseball here will be given a boost.

You Bun Hee is now a mechanic at the Coombs' auto shop. He will no doubt be a great help to the automobile jockeys of the Commercial League. Coombs will play the Star-Bulletin squad next Sunday at Athletic Park. The newspaper boys are going out to win, and Coombs will have to go some. Ah Bun or Nishida will pitch for the Bulletin boys.

Donald Ladd of the Heanali team is now playing with the Lihue team of Kauai. He is the leading batsman of that island, and was the star of the All-Kauai nine when they took the All-Students into camp by a score of 6 to 5 a week ago. Don is doing Y. M. C. A. work in the Garden Isle.

The Chinese team of the Honolulu League has a young southpaw in Ah Kee Chang. He is only seventeen years old and measures five feet seven in height. Kim Luke certainly has a string of good pitchers to depend on this season. Luck Yee and Hoon Ki are the other two moundmen.

"The All-Kauai team has never been defeated by a Honolulu nine," is the famous phrase of the pill tossers of that place. Two years ago, Bill Inman took an All-Student team to invade Kauai. The All-Kauai boys, with their cane rollers, crushed the students by a runaway score and again this year beat Billy Miles' bunch by the tune of 6 to 5. Will the All-Kauais be beaten by the Students next year?

Jim Thorpe of the Cincinnati Reds is the speediest baserunner of the major leagues, but he seldom gets a chance to show the fans that he is a fast man, because of his poor hitting.

The Heanalis of the Pacific League is still topping the other teams with the war clubs. Ten players of the team are batting over the .300 mark to date. No wonder they are the leaders in hitting. What the Heanali club needs is a little team work and a couple of good pitchers who can twirl the team to victory. How about it, Harry?

W. Johnson of Company A, 25th Infantry, is a real dark horse. He led his team in batting in the 25th All-Star game at Moiliili Field last Sunday afternoon. Lookout, O. Johnson, he'll put you out of the job pretty soon. This W. Johnson is a speedy man and should be a comer in the near future.

The Chinese and the Filipinos of the Pacific League will fight it out for the cellar position. By next week the fans will know which team wants the tail ending dose. There must be something wrong with the Chinese players. They seemed to have lacked the pep they used to have in the former years. Let's see what they can do in the second series of play.

The Ewa plantation baseball team is keeping up the reputation as ball players of the Sugar Cane League.

BEST TENNIS OF Y. M. TOURNAMENT SEEN YESTERDAY

Dr. Williams and Theodore Richards Defeat Ross Page and Harold Hill, 6-1, 6-2

Winning in two straight sets, 6-1 and 6-2, Dr. R. D. Williams and Theodore Richards defeated Ross Page and Harold Hill in the best tennis yet displayed in the doubles tournament now being conducted by the Y. M. C. A.

The match was held yesterday afternoon on the new Atherton courts. Page and Hill showed right at the start that they were out for every point and in the second game one of the points was not won until three lack court smashes had crossed the net. Williams and Richards were not intimidated by taking a love game, and then followed one of the longest games of the present tourney. It went down to eleven deuces and was finally won by yesterday's winners.

In the second set Richards showed up exceptionally well with his forward drive, placing nearly every return true. "His partner relied entirely on the chop stroke to the sides—the stroke which has undone many an opponent of Dr. Williams.

The losers served too many double faults—ten of these being their quota—and these, together with their tendency to over drive the back lines were their weak points.

Williams and Richards are now in the finals and await this afternoon's match to discover their final opponents. Wilder and Girdler meet Guard and Jackson this afternoon in the semi-finals, the winner of the match to meet yesterday's winners in the final match of the tournament. Both teams played errorless ball throughout the game and the fans and fan-favorites alike were well pleased with the brand of ball put up by these two teams. The Juniors have the weakest team in the league, but the good playing showed yesterday proved that they are no jokers. The score was 5 to 5 when the game was called at the end of the seventh inning. After the fourth inning both sides did not score. Kam Hee was on the mound for the Sophomores and while Young Lup was the main slasher for the Juniors squad. The game will be played off sometime this week.

The Seniors, champions of the school, will play the Alumni team on Saturday noon. The Alumni bunch has a number of speedy tossers such as Lai Sinn, Loo, Lum, Jew Jack, Kam Moon and many others, who are going to down the mighty Seniors. Both teams are practicing for the great battle every day.

The Seniors will have a number of pitchers ready to stack against the graduates of the school. Kam Bung may be the choice to take the mound with Kam Chock at the receiving end. The Alumni players are heavy hitters and on the other hand the undergraduates are peppery fielders. In rounding the bases the two teams are about equal.

The probable lineup of the two teams will be as follows: Seniors—Wing See, 3b; Kam Bung, p; Fook Low, 1b; Chack Hing, 2b; Moon Tai, ss; Kam Chock, cf; Jan Fui, lf; Ah Kim Yee, cf; Ah Fong, rf; Alumni—Ah Tong, c; Jew Jack, p; Fookie, 1b; Moon, 2b; Lai Sinn, ss; Loo, 3b; Lum, lf; Yee Chuck, cf; Ah Kee Leong, rf.

MUN LUN TEAMS PLAY FAST BALL

More than 500 students witnessed a game of baseball played between the Juniors and the Sophomores at the school grounds of the Mun Lun Chinese institution at noon yesterday. This game is the first one of a series of games to be played at the school during the summer months. Both teams played errorless ball throughout the game and the fans and fan-favorites alike were well pleased with the brand of ball put up by these two teams. The Juniors have the weakest team in the league, but the good playing showed yesterday proved that they are no jokers. The score was 5 to 5 when the game was called at the end of the seventh inning. ## ROYAL ROOTERS TO NAME HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

High Cockalorum and Other Titles Will Be Conferred on Saturday; Want 200

Anyone who has attended the games at Moiliili Field on Saturday afternoons can tell you about the Royal Rooters. This organization was formed early in the season, and in the last month has become famous. On next Saturday afternoon the colony will hold their first election and a campaign will be made for 200 members.

The Big Shouters of Cincinnati and the Grand Yellers of Pittsburgh have nothing on this organization. To old membership in the order one has to attend every game, and it is understood that there is a fine assessed to those who miss the weekly meetings.

It is expected that the officers will be many, inasmuch as it is planned to build up a big organization. The executive of the club will be called the High Cockalorum, and the other officers will be Grand Gargler, Bone Head Adjuster, Minister of the Sore Throat, Chief Spieler and Knight of the Cough Drops.

According to information which has reached the baseball world, there will be a hard fight for the various offices. Members of the Royal Rooters are lining up new members, who will be admitted into the inner sanctum before the election, and according to the dope, a real battle of the baiters will be held.

The Royal Rooters have done much to boost Saturday baseball in Honolulu. They attend every game, and their rooting is the big feature. Without doubt the organization will be increased, and the local organization of rooters may become as famous as the Big Shouters of Cincinnati.

Among the members of the Royal Rooters who will perhaps be candidates for the offices are: Henry Buckley, George Godfrey, Charles Dwight, Joseph Dwight, Harry Melim, James Dwight, Tom Cummings, George Lawkins, Billy Dickson, Tom Evans, Dorey Cummings, Henry Haneberg and others.

According to one of the members, the organization is expected to hold a big baseball banquet as soon as the membership has reached 100. The Royal Rooters have in the past played no favorites, and give credit where credit is due, and a root where it is needed. This feature has especially appealed to the players, even those who have received the shots from the grandstand.

SUPPLY OF BILLION SETS NEW RECORD

NEW YORK, N. Y.—The count of what government officials believe to be the greatest hoard of gold ever stored simultaneously in one place in the history of the world, consisting of English, French and American coins and bullion, that have all gone into the melting pots together, totalling $765,000,000, has just been completed at the United States assay office here "without a penny found to be missing," it was announced by Edward P. Leach, head of the settlement committee now making the annual inventory and audit of the office.

Verne M. Bowie, superintendent of the office, says bullion now on hand is more than ten times the normal average of previous years. The greatest total prior to the war, he said, was $80,000,000. This year's huge total is attributed to gold imports from the allies to meet war bills and also to abnormal local receipts.

DE RESZKE, GRAND OPERA STAR, IS DEAD

FIRST MAIL IN 6 DAYS ARRIVES

Honolulu today received its first mail from the mainland in six days when a British liner arrived from Vancouver and Victoria with 368 letters for this port, from Canada and states.

Several Honoluluans returned on steamer, including Mrs. John W. and daughter, Miss Kathleen Watt, letter returning from school in Astoria, accompanied by her mother, Master H. W. Watt, son of H. W. Watt of this city, also returned from school in Victoria.

P. E. Quinn, until recently commissioner in New York for the B. & O. railway, is returning home accompanied by Mrs. Quinn and daughter, L. Brown, of Brown & Joske, Buva, is going back to Suva after a tour of China, Japan, the Philippines, and America.

Maj. C. H. Crichton of the British army is en route to Australia on orders, coming from Great Britain. The steamer is one day behind schedule, most of the delay being due to war regulations in effect with the steamers leaving the Straits in daylight. The liner was ready to leave at 6 a. m. but because of regulations had to wait until 9:30 a. m. before she could get permission to depart.

Capt. J. D. S. Phillips reported fine voyage. The liner was berthed at Pier 7, Waikiki side, by Capt.

McKEE STEALS THIRD WITH THE BASES FULL

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 22.—Baseball gave birth to a new angle of freakishness in the wild and weird pastime here this afternoon.

"Red" McKee of the San Francisco Seals stole third with the bases full and got away with it, which would seem to be a world's record.

In the fourth inning, just as Tom Hughes started to wind up, "Red" tore from second to third, where Phil Koerner stood frantically waving him away. It was a repetition of what is regarded as the king-pin of all bone-head plays, but Hughes pulled just as big a boner. Instead of finishing his pitch, he halted his wind-up half way, and turning, threw to third. It was a balk. Koerner was waved in with a run, and McKee was safe at third and was spared a lot of "kidding."
